TISHREI AND CHESHVAN 5783

A Letter from Rabbi Bigman

Several times in the Torah we learn about the sabbatical year, the final year out of every seven where the land is to lie fallow:

Six years you shall sow your land and gather its yield, but in the seventh you shall let it rest and lie fallow. Let the needy among your people eat of it, and what they leave let the wild beasts eat. You shall do the same with your vineyards and your olive groves. [Exodus 23:10-11]

The sabbatical year is similarly mentioned in Leviticus where it is also noted that "the land shall have a sabbath of complete rest, a sabbath of Adonai." [25:4] In the fifteenth chapter of the Book of Deuteronomy, we learn that in addition to allowing the land to lie fallow in the seventh year, all outstanding debts are to be cancelled.

From these verses of Torah comes the modern idea of a sabbatical, as defined by Oxford Languages: "Sabbatical: a period of paid leave granted to a university teacher or other worker for study or travel, traditionally one year for every seven years worked."

Back in January-March 2014 I took the first sabbatical of my then 21-year career. Per my contract, I had been given 60 days of sabbatical. I added in unused vacation time and made my sabbatical into three months. Unfortunately, as many of you will remember, my sabbatical turned into medical leave as I fell on the ice in Cincinnati while studying at my alma mater, Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion, and ended up shattering my kneecap!

I look back at the bulletin article and sermon that I wrote announcing my sabbatical and laugh when I get to the sentence "I also hope to spend some time with my sister and her family who live only 1 1/2 hours away from campus." I ended up not just spending "some time" with them, but rather an entire month as I lived with them as they nursed me back to health following my knee surgery!

In the normal course of a year, my responsibilities don't allow for me to take the full amount of vacation time to which I am contractually entitled, let alone months at a time for a sabbatical. I was very fortunate in 2014 to have many people fill in for my various responsibilities while I was on sabbatical / medical leave, especially Cantor Schiffer who led the majority of Shabbat services while I was out of town. So as not to be a burden to those who will fill in for me during worship, religious school responsibilities, B'nei Mitzvah tutoring, and more, I have chosen to take my upcoming sabbatical in increments. The first will be the month of November.

I am grateful to Dr. Margot Valles for teaching my high school class; Rachel Minkin for tutoring my Bat Mitzvah student; Dr. Joanne Gilbert, Amy Shapiro, Susi Greiner, Rebecca Bahar-Cook, and Terry Selman for leading Shabbat evening worship; and Patty Warshaw for fielding phone calls, e-mails, and more during my absence.*

In December I look forward to welcoming Rabbi Marla Feldman, executive director of the Women of Reform Judaism, to our bimah on Friday, December 2, as we celebrate Sisterhood Shabbat, and Dan Nichols, contemporary Jewish musician extraordinaire as we co-sponsor his concert with the Greater Lansing Jewish Federation on Saturday, December 3. What a great way it will be to return to the congregation by welcoming these two guests! I look forward to seeing you the first weekend of December for these extraordinary worship, learning, and musical opportunities!

*As of this writing, I am still looking for someone to lead a brief Torah study and to lead the Conservative Shabbat morning service on November 19. Please let me know if you are able to volunteer. Thank you!

COUPON BOOK FUNDRAISER FOR SOPHIE RADWAY MEMORIAL PJ LIBRARY FUND

Save money -- lots of money! -- and support our community by purchasing a SAVE AROUND coupon book. Coupon savings for restaurants, golf courses, assorted retail stores and other vendors are included in the book.

The cost is $25 of which $12.50 comes back to the congregation and will be used to support the Sophie Radway Memorial PJ Library Fund, which sends free Jewish books monthly to Jewish children in our area who are ages 6 months - 8 years old.

Please contact Patty Warshaw in the Shaarey Zedek office (351-3570, ext. 1) or Burt Altman (285-9783) from 7-9 p.m. if you would like to purchase a coupon book.

Thank you for supporting the Sophie Radway PJ Library Program at Congregation Shaarey Zedek!

High Holy Days Food & Toiletries Drive

Dear Shaarey Zedek Families,

It has been our tradition for many years to take the opportunity during the High Holiday Season to go above and beyond our regular support of those in our community who may need additional assistance.

Over the last few years, while everything around us has been changing rapidly from one moment to the next, one thing has remained consistent – our commitment to helping our community through difficult times. We will distribute bags on Rosh Hashanah and ask that you use them to fill with items to be donated to the Greater Lansing Food Bank. While the Greater Lansing Food Bank is once again accepting physical donations, please feel welcome to provide monetary donations instead. The Greater Lansing Food Bank is able to stretch our dollars further than our canned goods.

Additionally, an envelope will be attached to the bags with which you can make a donation to MAZON. Through MAZON, Jews give voice to the Torah's call for justice, and embrace the traditional Jewish commitment to sustain the hungry.

The MAZON Mission Statement: Inspired by Jewish values and ideals, MAZON is a national advocacy organization working to end hunger among people of all faiths and backgrounds in the United States and Israel.

Their goals can only be accomplished with the support of our great Jewish community, and we urge Shaarey Zedek families to continue our tradition of support for their work and make a donation to this organization.

To learn more about MAZON, please visit their website <http://www.mazon.org>.

Because of our congregation's continuous support, the Tzedakah Committee has been able to make donations to the Greater Lansing Food Bank and MAZON, but also local to the MSU Student Food Bank.

The MSU Student Food Bank serves MSU students experiencing food insecurity by providing free food and related items. To learn more about how you can provide support, please visit <http://www.foodbank.msu.edu>.

Thank you for your participation in this year's food drive!

Multi-Session Classes for Adults

Midrash and Mayhem: Adventures in Genesis

Thursdays at 8:00 p.m. via Zoom October 6, 13, 20, 27

If you thought the book of Genesis was wild on its own just wait until you see how the ancient rabbis interpreted it! In this weekly study session, we'll consider how the rabbis understood famous elements of the opening chapters of the Torah--from why the Torah begins with the letter Bet to what fruit was on the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil.

The Talmud's Top Ten Clickbait

Sundays at 2:00 p.m. In-Person October 16, 23, 30

These "Top Ten" texts are the reasons people continue to study Talmud. What happens when four rabbis enter God's palace? What's up with demon bowls? How did a debate over an oven lead to the rabbis overruling God? Is our covenant with God legal? Why did Yochanan ben Zakkai fake his death--and how did that save rabbinic Judaism? We'll study key Talmud passages in bite sized pieces that are appropriate for all skill levels.

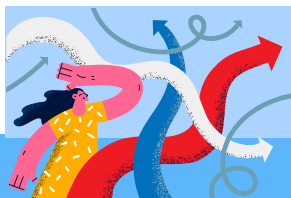

Class will only be held if there are at least 4 attendees.

Please let us know if you will be attending by texting the words "Top Ten" and your name to Margot at (412) 614 - 0310.
