A Letter from Rabbi Bigman

The holiday of Sigd is celebrated by Ethiopian Jews on the 29th of Cheshvan (November 30 this year). The Amharic word Sigd means "to prostrate oneself" or "to worship." The holiday falls 50 days after Yom Kippur and commemorates the acceptance of the Torah. In Ethiopia Jews pray in the direction of Jerusalem; they fast for the first part of the day and, following special Biblical readings done in the Ge'ez language, the Kessim (religious leaders) offer special blessings to the people. The entire community breaks their fast together and they express their hopes to go to Jerusalem. Sigd became a national holiday in Israel in 2008.

The history of the Ethiopian Jews is quite interesting. Some have suggested that when Moses and the Israelites left Egypt during the time of the Exodus, in about 1200 B.C.E., some of the people didn't make it across the Sea of Reeds. Instead they traveled to Ethiopia from Egypt. Others trace their history to the story of King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba around 900 B.C.E. (The area known as Sheba is believed by scholars to be in northern Ethiopia or southern Yemen.)

In I Kings 10:1-13, we have the story of Solomon and the queen meeting each other. The queen came to meet Solomon because she had heard of his wisdom; after he answered all of her questions, she gave Solomon many goods and he in turn gave the queen many goods. Some claim that the queen was pregnant when she went back to Sheba and gave birth to Menelik who would later become King of Ethiopia. The king came back to Israel to see his father, King Solomon, later in life. When he left Israel to return to Ethiopia, he brought many Israelites with him.

Others suggest that the Jews arrived in Ethiopia in the eighth century B.C.E. At that time two Israelite tribes lived in the southern kingdom, known as the Kingdom of Judah (or Judea). The remaining ten tribes lived in the northern kingdom, known as Israel. When the Assyrians invaded the north, the ten tribes were lost to us. Some believe that the members of the tribe of Dan escaped from the Assyrians and migrated to Ethiopia.

However the Jews of Ethiopia got there, they lived for 2,000 years not knowing that there were other Jews in the world. They lived in the region of Gondar, up in the mountains, totally removed from the rest of the world. They called themselves the Beta Israel (House of Israel).

During the 1980s, with famine, disease, and oppression rampant in Ethiopia, thousands of Jews fled. About 4,000 died in their attempt to get to Israel. In 1984-1985, Operation Moses rescued 8,000 Jews and brought them to Israel. In 1991, during Operation Solomon, over 14,000 Beta Israel were flown out of Ethiopia to Israel in 1 1/2 days!

Ethiopian Jews are in need of our help. Here are two organizations that specifically work with Ethiopian Jews, both those still remaining in Ethiopia and those in Israel:

1. The North American Conference on Ethiopian Jewry (www.nacoej.org) is a non-profit organization founded in 1982 with four mandates:

- To help Ethiopian Jews survive in Ethiopia.
- To assist each Ethiopian Jew in reaching Israel.
- To aid in the absorption of Ethiopian Jews into Israeli society.
- To preserve the unique and ancient culture of Jews of Ethiopian descent.

2. English B'Yachad / Skilled Volunteers for Israel (<https://www.skillvolunteerisrael.org/>) is an organization that enhances the lives of young adults from less-advantaged Israeli communities (primarily Ethiopian) by volunteering online to help them with conversational English.

Happy Sigd!

UPDATE: NEW CARPET INSTALLATION IN LOBBY

Congregation Shaarey Zedek is having new carpeting installed in the lobby south hallway, and office of Lifelong Learning between Monday, November 11 and Thursday, November 14. If you need to visit the Administration Office during those days, please call ahead and speak with Executive Director Mark Silberstein 607-426-4450 as access from the lobby to the classroom wing will be restricted so crews can complete their tasks unabated.

We will also need a small group of volunteers to move furniture and other items before the installation begins, since the floors will have to be cleared of any obstructions. This will take place Sunday, November 10, starting around 1 p.m. If you can assist us, email Mark at executive@shaareyzedek.com.

GLTY Events

December 15: (GLTY Jr. Grades 5-7)

Pizza lunch and magic show with Jeff Olds at 12 p.m. directly after Sunday School. RSVP details will be forthcoming.

January 12, 2025: (GLTY Grades 8-12)

Constellation Cat Café Mitzvah Project

We will assist with cleaning the cat café and having some “cat time.” The Cat Café has recently experienced an accident at their new location. GLTY will be hosting a holiday donation drive and will bring donations with us to our event in January. RSVP and a list of donations will be forthcoming.

Our recent Tashlich ceremony at Ferguson Park on Rosh Hashanah was such a meaningful and memorable event!

Thanks to Ornithologist and temple member, Mike Bishop, for a great program on September 22. Cider, donuts, and birds were enjoyed by all!

On September 14, we gathered at the temple to celebrate the incredible milestone of our Director of Congregational Lifelong Learning, Dr. Margot Valles, becoming a rabbi.

In addition to our weekly Shabbat prayers for the hostages and all who are affected by the war, on Shabbat Shuvah (Sabbath of Repentance/Return), October 4, we spent part of our worship viewing a photo display showing the remaining hostages. It was truly a moving moment for those in attendance. Thanks to Shawna Olds for the suggestion and for preparing the display in the sanctuary.

(HAPPY BIRTHDAY)

MAZAL TOV!

Daphne Elder, daughter of Carey and Todd Elder, will be called to the Torah on Shabbat morning, November 16, at 10:00 a.m. Daphne is in seventh grade at Haslett Middle School, where she excels in math and English, and has been selected multiple times for student of the month. She loves all things musical theatre. She also enjoys swimming and playing the ukulele. For her mitzvah project, Daphne created a pamphlet to educate elementary school students on food allergies. She handed out over 100 of these at a local school open house in August. She plans to attend an elementary school open house each year going forward to help educate kids in the community.

The Elder family invites the congregation to share in their simcha by attending the Shabbat morning service (or watching the livestream at www.shaarezedek.com), followed by a kiddush luncheon in the Davis Family Social Hall.

PRESIDENT'S CORNER

JOANNE GILBERT

In my address to our congregation on Erev Rosh Hashanah, I asked that we get comfortable with being uncomfortable, specifically regarding our willingness to accept change. Considering that change is both inevitable and necessary, I proposed that the best way for us to navigate change is by moving forward together. To that end, I made the following request: Please give! Give your time, volunteering to help with event logistics and ongoing work. Give your talent by sharing your skills and expertise. Give your treasure by donating to our matching campaign. When we all give to our congregation, we can move forward together to accomplish our goals. Our first step is listening to your needs. The listening session we held last month was extremely helpful; the board and I look forward to our next session as well as our congregational budget meeting. We deeply appreciate your input as we strive to effect positive change.

In this month's bulletin, you will see many photos of September and October events at Shaarey Zedek, from bird banding to a Shabbat Shuvah installation. None of these events could have happened without our volunteers, and I thank all of you who worked hard to ensure that our congregational community had a panoply of educational, spiritual, and entertaining opportunities. We all love attending these events, and offering future events requires that we all contribute in any way we can. Are you willing to assist with event logistics by setting up, taking down, or helping with refreshments? What is your passion? Music? Travel? Literature? Science? Please take the initiative and contact Membership Committee Chair, Carol Barrett; she will be happy to help you figure out how to share your interest and expertise! And when you get a call from our Fundraising Committee, please give whatever you can to our Matching Campaign so that we can take advantage of our generous donors' matching funds!

Thank you for being the lifeblood of Congregation Shaarey Zedek. The wonderful conversations I was able to have with many of you during the High Holy Days reaffirmed for me that we are beyond fortunate to be a part of this Kehillah Kedoshah, this cherished community. I hope to see you soon at Shabbat services, our congregational budget meeting, and the many other exciting events we have planned in the coming weeks.
